

Welcome to Northbrook Public Library's New Catalog

Northbrook Public Library is launching a new way to discover, explore, and interact with all the items you can borrow.

Let's walk through the new look, its features, and the registration process.

The Explore Page

The top of every catalog page includes language settings (above the logo), our library hours & location, a help link, and a login link.

There are other options for searching the catalog and browsing new books, movies, and other media through lists and reviews.

Log In & Registration

This is our new catalog interface, so you will need to complete a brief, one-time registration process the first time you log in to it. To get started, click "Log In / My Account" and then the "Log In / Register" button.

Registration

Enter your Northbrook Public Library card number and password. Contact the library if you are unsure what your password is. Click Log In.

Welcome!

Let's set up your MyNorthbrook Public Library catalog account. Then you'll be able to view your checkouts and due dates, renew items, place holds and more.

It will only take a minute.

Continue to Account Setup

In the next window, confirm your information. If your information is correct, click "Continue." If your information is incorrect, you can call the library at 847-272-6224.

Create a Unique Username

When completing your initial registration in the new catalog, you will need to create a username. Creating a username allows you to keep your library card private if you make lists, leave comments, or write reviews. You can also log in with your username instead of your library card number if you prefer.

Every username must be unique, so if you see a red box with the text "Someone else has this username..." try a different username. Once you've successfully created a username, you can review and accept the BiblioCommons Terms of Use. Then click "Complete Account Setup."

Please Note: patrons under 13 years of age will select from suggested usernames to comply with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act.

Account Configuration

Click 'Continue to My Account' to enable your browsing history, create privacy defaults, import your lists, and more.

Settings

On the Settings page, you can enable borrowing history, import list items, set a preferred browsing language, preferred library pick-up locations.

"Enable Borrowing History." If you enabled reading history in our previous catalog, enabling it here will automatically import your history to the new catalog.

"Select your preferred library locations." This setting will allow catalog search results to indicate if an item is on shelf at your preferred location.

"Import List Items" will import your lists from the old catalog and add them all to your "For Later Shelf."

Explore Your Library Dashboard

Your library dashboard offers an overview of information linked to your library card like borrowing history, fees, items checked out or on hold. It also highlights your "For Later" shelf, and your "Create and Contribute" activity feed, where you can write and share reviews, ratings, tags, and comments with other library patrons.

The screenshot shows the Northbrook Public Library website interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'English', 'Hours & Location', 'Help', and a user profile 'linnlun'. Below this is a search bar with 'Search the Catalog by Keyword' and an 'Advanced Search' link. A blue bar with 'Borrow' is visible. The main content area is titled 'My Library Dashboard' and welcomes the user 'linnlun'. On the left, there's a sidebar with 'My Borrowing' (showing 6 checked out items, 11 on hold, 0 borrowing history, $0.00 fees, and 1 ILL request), 'My Profile' (with the user's name and library affiliation), and 'My Collections' (with 'On my shelves'). The main content area has two sections: 'My For Later Shelf' with a 'Go to Shelf' button, and 'Create and Contribute' with a 'Make private' link and a 'Go to Shelf' button.

Congratulations
