

BABY READING LOG • JUNE 1 – AUGUST 13

NORTHBROOK PUBLIC LIBRARY

Find Your Voice

SUMMER READING • 2023

NAME

USERNAME

PASSWORD

How to play: Fill in a microphone print for every activity that you and your child complete. Activities don't have to match the suggested activities below. Repeat favorites or invent your own! When you complete 10 activities, come in for your free egg shaker.

When you complete 20 activities, come in to pick up a free book for your little one!

Attend a library storytime.

Sit on cushions on the floor and pretend to be in a boat. Sing "Row, Row, Row, Your Boat."

Make a tent out of blankets and pretend to be camping in the forest.

Listen to birds singing. Imitate the sound.

Have a family storytime. Each person picks a book.

Take turns naming animals and making animal sounds.

Bring a blanket outside and have some tummy time.

Draw the outline of your child's hand. Write the date, and have your child "sign" the drawing.

Go for a walk and talk about things that are growing.

Sing a favorite song. Then make up new words, and sing again.

Play "Echo Me." Clap, stomp, or beat a drum and have your child repeat it.

Have a puppet or stuffed animal "read" a book.

Spend 10 cuddly minutes reading together

Plan a picnic. Make a menu with pictures. Talk about the menu when putting the picnic together.

Play music with a fast tempo when you pick up and put toys away.

Talk about today's weather. What should you wear?

Find a book at the library about birds.

Count the petals on a flower.

Paint on the sidewalk with water. Watch it evaporate.

Using a brush, paint your child with water, naming body parts. Let them manipulate the brush themselves.

Shadow play on a sunny day.

Sit outside and make a list of seven things you see with your child.

Blow bubbles!
Ask questions!

Talk about what made you happy today.

Sign up & track your progress online at www.northbrook.info/summer-reading

You can also email youthservices@northbrook.info or call 847-272-4300 to sign up starting June 1.

NORTHBROOK
PUBLIC LIBRARY