

305: Programming

Created:	March 2020	Updated:
----------	------------	----------	--

Programs are an extension of the services provided by the Northbrook Public Library and are offered for patrons of all ages. The Northbrook Public Library does not vet or endorse the content of any program. Library programs are open to the public without charge. Patrons may be charged a fee for materials and supplies for certain programs.

Library programs are generally open to anyone wishing to attend. For certain high demand and small capacity programs, registration will be limited to Northbrook cardholders.